Artists

Miki KARIYA

Painting

Her rich colors and soft, unique worlds are depicted on wooden boards, deliberately exposing the grain to evoke nostalgia and the passage of time. Recognized in Asian art markets, including Hong Kong and Seoul.

Ransui YAKATA

Sumi Ink Painting

Upholds the motto "Sho-ga Dogen" (Calligraphy and Painting Share the Same Origin), pursuing vital, lively works rooted in the brushstroke. Recipient of numerous awards.

 @sumiransui

Ensui SHIMAZAKI

Sumi Ink Painting

Studied ink painting under Yakata Ransui and calligraphy under Shimazaki Hoto. Became a certified instructor in 2015. Explores "Sho-ga Dogen" since childhood, integrating painting and calligraphy. Winner of many awards.

Seisui OGISU

Calligraphy

Studied under Yamada Chikuryo and Yakata Shutei. Pursues contemporary calligraphy that resembles ink painting. Explores gradation, visual effects, and the unity of calligraphy and painting. Winner of multiple awards.

 @seisui_syusei

Ichiko MIWA

Installation

Her works are close to inner landscapes that formed unconsciously, overflowing with awe and longing for nature, life and death. She continues to create as a way of expressing fragments of that world. Exhibited in many art fairs in Japan and abroad.

 @miwaichiko

Emi SATO

Shadow Art

Creates shadow art by shining light on objects assembled from discarded materials and everyday items, producing silhouettes with narrative qualities. Actively exhibits in museums and galleries, as well as producing works for brand movies and store events.

 @messy.work

Emi TANAJI

Mural (House Gallery Outer Wall)

Creates works rooted in a worldview of reverence for life. Her richly imaginative works, supported by solid skills and diverse styles, convey stories woven by people and landscapes. Her murals radiate positive energy like songs praising life.

 @emitanaji

Shogo IWAKIRI

Mural (Mikan Shimokita)

Enjoys painting inspired by sensations from unknown environments, traveling to dozens of countries to paint. Highly influenced by indigenous cultures of Latin America. His experiences living with them and encountering shamanism and nature significantly shape his artistic vision.
